Frequently asked questions

What is Blended Learning?

A: Blended learning course includes an online portion and an instructor led classroom skills session.

How do I access the online portion?

A: The first step is to register for a class with ACT. Once you have registered and paid for the class, ACT will submit your information to American Red Cross. American Red Cross will send you a link by email to set-up an account with them and a voucher code to access the on-line class.

Do I have to have an email account to use blended learning?

A: Yes, an individual email account is required by the Red Cross to complete the class.

When should the online portion be completed?

A: The online portion must be completed before you attend the in-class skills session.

Do I need to show proof of completing the online session?

A: *Yes. Print your online course completion record available at the end of the course and show it to your instructor at the beginning of the skills session. You will not be permitted to do the skills session without completing the online session First.

How long is the online portion and the skill session?

A: Most learners complete the online portion in approximately 2 hours and the skills session 1.5 hours.

When should I begin the online session?

A: It is recommended to begin the online session as soon as possible to ensure you have completed it prior to the in-person skills session.

Do I have to pay a fee to ACT and American Red Cross?

A: No, the fee paid to ACT includes both the online and in-person skills session.

How do I get my certificate?

A: Once both portions of the class have been completed, you will receive a copy of a digital certificate via your email from the American Red Cross. A printed copy will be sent to your facility if they registered and paid for you to take the training. A paper copy of your certificate can be printed by your instructor per your request.
